

Lowell Community Health Center

Teen BLOCK Youth

Substance Use Prevention

2016-2017 Grant

Recipient

GRANT

- $39,000 was awarded to the Lowell Community Health Center
- Targeted Middle Schools and High Schools
- Outreaches during lunch periods and classes helped increase the number of young people participating in programs
- The hardest part was retaining the young people throughout the program

IMPACT

- The Teen BLOCK Youth Substance Use Prevention Project reached over 280 preteens and teen through community events and afterschool programs at the Middle Schools in Lowell

